How it works

Choose

Choose your gifts from the catalogue or if you have something specific in mind, make an enquiry via deskdropgifts@colleaguebox.co.uk and we can create it for you

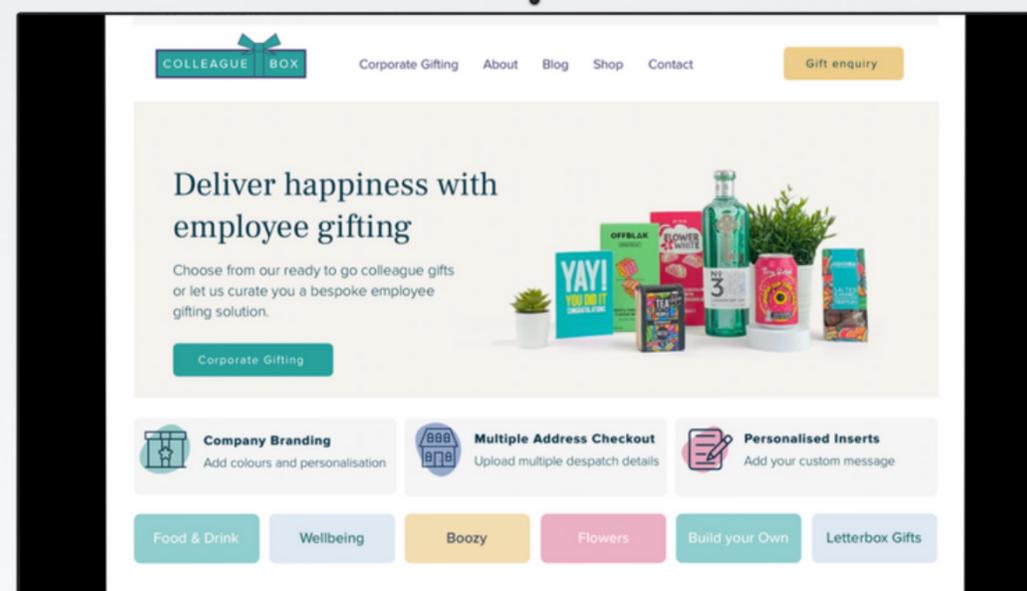

Personalise

All our gifts come with printed personalised messages as standard; its this message that really makes it feel special and lets the recipient know they are appreciated

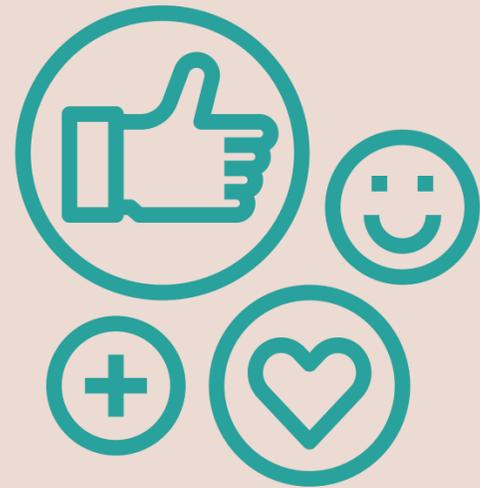

Deliver

Once everything is finalised, send us your spreadsheet to deskdropgifts@colleaguebox.co.uk with the address(es) you want us to ship to, we'll send you an invoice ... then sit back and relax

Benefits of Employee Gifting

Boost Engagement

Success-themed rewards generally create more success. If you're rewarding an employee for doing a great job on a project or for hitting a target, the boost in morale an unexpected gift provides has a lasting effect.

Increase Retention

Not only does gifting show appreciation, but it can also improve employee retention rates. When employees feel valued and appreciated, they are more likely to stay with the company long-term.

Improve Workplace Culture

Implementing a culture of reward and recognition can foster a more collaborative workforce and a more enjoyable working environment. Rewarding your employees with gifts that are personal to their recognition increases your organisation's visibility and positive perception of your company.
