Frequently Asked Questions

What are the cut off dates for Christmas orders?

To ensure exact stock availability we kindly request orders as early as possible. We require at least 2 week's notice for orders of 40 or more gifts with a cut-off of December 8th 2023 for pre-Christmas delivery.

What are the postage options for Christmas orders?

With the exception of Build Your Own Gift (BYOG) all our gifts include Royal Mail tracked delivery. We have upgrade options to a next day DHL service. If you are purchasing BYO you have a choice regarding which postage option that you'd like to include.

Are your gifts only for colleagues?

Not at all. Our gifts are suitable for any recipient and include a personalised message card at no additional cost. If the Ready To Go options aren't quite right you have the choice to Build Your Own Gift or if you are ordering 40 or more gifts you can speak to us about bespoke gifts.

I want to buy a gift that is more expensive than the Ready To Go gift range; can you accommodate?

Not a problem. With the Build Your Own Gift selection you can include as many items as you like and choose a hamper if you wish. If you are needing 40 or more gifts we are happy to explore Bespoke Christmas gifting with you.

Can I send you dietary requirements for our gifts?

Of course. Once you've placed your order you can include a dietary requirement column on your recipient information sheet; we will accommodate all dietary or religious requirements. We always try our best to replace the products like for like but this is not always possible; where this is the case we will ensure the value of the product is of equal value at the very least.

I want to hand write a Christmas card; can you include this?

This is no problem at all. Simply make us aware via christmas2023@colleaguebox.co.uk and send to Gifting Team, Colleague Box, 17 Northedge, Alfreton Road, Derby, DE21 4BN.

I have some company branded merchandise that I'd like to include; can you include this?

This is no problem at all. Simply make us aware via christmas2023@colleaguebox.co.uk and send to Gifting Team, Colleague Box, 17 Northedge, Alfreton Road, Derby, DE21 4BN.
